Welcome to USC and the City of Los Angeles! Get to know your new school and new city during this two-part seminar. First, we will explore the University of Southern California, focusing on its history, values and traditions, as well as current events and resources on campus to ease your transition to college life. Then, we will take a look at the diverse and dynamic City of Angels, its past and present, and can’t-miss events, sights and activities. Start your college bucket list!